4. If the Committee Staff sees there is a similar motion for a moderated caucus with a time allocation more beneficial for the committee proceedings, the Committee Staff can ask the Delegate to withdraw their motion. The Delegates can also ask at any time for their motion to be withdrawn.
5. The motion will then be put to a vote and its adoption requires a simple majority of the delegates.
6. The Director may rule the motion out of order and appealing his/her decision is not possible.
7. If the motion passes, the Director shall call upon Delegates, who signify their desire to speak by raising their placards, at his/her discretion

6. Working papers are not official documents but they still need to be approved by the Director and made available to the whole Committee.

III. RULES GOVERNING PARLIAMENTARY DISCUSSIONS

8. Working Papers shall not be voted upon.

Article 36: Final Documents of the Committee

Article 37: Draft Resolution Paper

1. A draft resolution may be introduced when it is approved by the Director and signed by one-fifth of the number of delegations that are present at the beginning of the Committee session.
2. Signing a draft resolution does not automatically amount to support the resolution, but it just indicates the will of the signatory Delegation to bring that resolution on the floor. There are no official sponsors of resolutions.
3. Introducing either pre-written resolutions prior to the Committee sessions or resolutions that are formulated by other delegates outside the Committee is strictly forbidden and will not receive the approval of the Director. All the documents presented will be scanned against plagiarism.

Article 38: Introducing a Draft Resolution Paper

1. After the approval of the Director, the draft resolution needs to be made available to all Delegations of the Committee before it can be entertained on the floor.
2. A motion to introduce a draft resolution requires a simple majority to pass.
3. Once the motion to introduce a draft resolution passes one of the signatory Delegations may rise to introduce the resolution. 4. Upon the introduction of the resolution by one of the signatory Delegations, it is debatable.
5. The introduced draft resolution is considered to be a separate agenda item, and a new Speakers' List should be established.
6. A resolution remains on the floor until debate on that specific resolution is postponed or closed.
7. Debate on resolutions proceeds according to the Speakers' List.

Article 39: Adoption of a Resolution Paper

1. As a general rule, resolutions require a simple majority of the Delegations to pass, and the vote is substantive in the Committees.

Article 40: Amendments

1. Delegates may amend a resolution that has been introduced.
2. Amendments to amendments are out of order. Yet, amended parts of a resolution may be further amended.
3. The signatory states are not official sponsors.
4. Pre-ambulatory clauses cannot be amended.
5. The procedural and substantive amendments are the two kinds of amendments used in ILSA MUN 2024. An amendment is procedural if it only aims to change the grammar mistakes or typing errors and voting on such amendments is considered to be procedural voting where the delegates are not allowed to abstain as in all procedural votes. A substantive amendment, on the other hand, changes the content of a clause, subtracts, or adds new clauses to the resolution introduced. Voting on such amendments is substantive and delegates are allowed to abstain.

III. RULES GOVERNING PARLIAMENTARY DISCUSSIONS

Article 40: Amendments

6. Amendments can be sent to the Committee Staff electronically or via message papers.

3. A motion to introduce an amendment requires a simple majority of the votes to pass.

5. A motion to close debate is in order after the Committee has heard two speakers for the amendment and two against or all speakers on oneside and at least two on the other side. Motion to close the debate requires a two-thirds vote.

6. If no Delegates have given a speech for or against the amendment, since debate has not started, the motion to close the debate is not required. Debate is assumed to be automatically closed in any circumstances where it is nonexistent.

7. When the debate is closed on the amendment, the Committee will move to an immediate vote.

8. After the vote, debate will continue in accordance with the Speakers' List. Simple majority is required to pass an amendment.

VI. RULES GOVERNING VOTING PROCEDURES

Article 43: Procedural Voting

1. Procedural voting is in order in all cases except for voting on a resolution or substantive amendment. All members of the United Nations International Children's (UNICEF), The International Labour Organization (ILO), and United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and United Nations Artificial Intelligence Consultation (UNAIC) shall enjoy equal voting rights on procedural votings.

2. Procedural voting does not accommodate abstaining, thus requires all delegations to cast an affirmative vote or a negative vote. In the event that the counted votes are less than the number of Delegates present; the Committee Staff shall take the vote repetitively until the number is met.

3. Note passing is automatically suspended during Procedural Voting.

4. Procedural voting procedures will be exercised through raising placards unless the Committee Directors choose to ease the process via seconds and objections. The procedure in that case shall go as follows:

a. For motions that require simple majority to pass; the Directors shall ask for first seconds and then objections as "Are there any seconds/objections?". Delegates who are in favour of the motion shall say "Second!" while those who are against shall say "Objection!" accordingly. If there are no seconds raised, the motion shall automatically fail and if there are no objections raised, the motion shall automatically pass without a voting procedure.

b. For motions that require 2/3 majority to pass; the Directors shall ask for first seconds "Are there any seconds?" Delegates who are in favour of the motion shall say "Second!" If there are no seconds raised, the motion shall automatically fail. If there are seconds to the motion; the Directors shall then move on to objections. In case no objections are raised, the Committee Directors shall repeat "Are there any objections?" to a total of three times. If the consent of the Committee is thus confirmed; the Committee shall surpass the procedure envisaged in relevant Articles.

Article 44: Substantive Voting

1. The only substantive voting is on resolutions or substantive amendments with each delegate having one vote.

2. Note passing is automatically suspended during substantive voting.

3. Each vote may be a 'yes', 'no' or 'abstain' in accordance with Article 17 unless otherwise is provided in these Rules of Parliamentary Procedure.

VI. RULES GOVERNING VOTING PROCEDURES

Article 44: Substantive Voting

5. A tie in the number of for and against votes designates a failure for the substantive document.
6. Abstentions shall be added to both for and against votes.
7. Abstentions shall not damage the consensus.
8. After the Director has announced the beginning of voting, no delegate shall interrupt the voting except on a point of personal privilege or on a point of order in connection with the conduct of the voting.

Article 45: Reordering Resolutions

1. Because ILSA MUN 2024 only allows one resolution to be passed on each topic, delegates may propose to reorder the order in which resolutions are voted on for strategic purposes.
2. A motion to reorder the resolutions requires a simple majority to pass and shall be debated to the extent of one for and one against speech.

Article 46: Roll call Voting

1. Immediately after debate is closed on any draft resolution, any delegate may request a roll call vote.
2. A motion for a roll call vote is in order only for draft resolutions and substantive amendments.
3. A motion for a roll call vote requires simple majority of the votes to pass.
4. In a roll call vote, the Director will call countries in alphabetical order.
5. In the first sequence, Delegates may vote 'Yes', 'No', 'Abstain', or 'Pass'. A delegate may request the right to explain his or her vote only when the Delegate is voting 20 against the policy of his or her country; such a vote is termed 'with Rights'. The Delegate may only explain an affirmative or negative vote, not an abstention from voting.
6. A Delegate who passes during the first sequence of the roll call must vote (i.e. may not abstain or pass) during the second sequence. The same Delegate may not request the right to explain his/her vote.

VI. RULES GOVERNING VOTING PROCEDURES

Article 46: Roll call Voting

7. All Delegates who had requested the right of explanation will be granted time to explain their votes. The speaking time will be set at the discretion of the Director, not to exceed thirty seconds. The Director can call the Delegate to order, if the substance of the speech is not pertaining their vote.
8. The Director will then announce the outcome of the vote.

Article 47: Motion for a Dividing the Question

1. Immediately after debate is closed on the agenda item, any Delegate may request the division of the question.
2. A motion for the division of the question is in order only for voting draft resolutions.
3. A motion for the division of the question requires simple majority of the votes to pass.
4. The delegate raising the motion shall indicate how he/she wishes to divide the draft resolution that is to be voted and group the operative clauses accordingly
5. If the motion passes, the draft resolution shall be voted on segment by segment first, which is procedural voting; and then voted as a whole, which is substantive voting.

Article 48: Motion for a Dividing the House

1. Immediately after debate is closed on the agenda, any delegate may request the division of the house.
2. Motion for the division of the house requires two-thirds majority of votes in order to pass.
3. A motion for the division of the house is in order only for voting draft resolutions.
